Ms. Nakagawa:

I am writing this letter to formally express my interest in applying for the audit associate position as recently advertised through your LinkedIn account. Not only is your firm among the top audit firms globally, but it also has a sterling reputation. I believe that my education, skill-set, and qualifications are in line with what your organization is looking for. It would be a great opportunity to be part of your firm which delivers above par accounting, audit, and consulting services to its clients.

I worked as an assurance intern with your firm last year; I had the opportunity to put my academic knowledge into practice. Working under skilled junior and senior audit associates in your company allowed me to develop relevant and meaningful experiences that essentially helped both my personal and professional growth.

Aside from my academic achievements, I am an exceptional problem solver and a quick learner. Both of these qualities are necessary in any profession, but they are especially important in a precise industry like auditing. My confidence as a suitable candidate for this position stems from a combination of my hard skills, soft skills, and eagerness to learn. The fact that I have a history with your firm is another bonus.

I would be pleased to discuss with you the details of my application and at the prospect of working with your company. You may contact me at 0908-924-9862 or via e-mail at jbuhayan@umindanao.edu.ph. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

JEMAIMAH FAITH M. BUHAYAN

After passing the CPALE and eventually become a CPA, I plan to take the CMA examination, which is an international certification. On top of that, I also plan to take a master's degree in Business Administration.

I look forward to having a job that will compensate me appropriately based on the value I provide to the company. Also, I would like to start my own business and supervise it with my experience and technical knowledge.

I can only do well when my body is well rested. Thus, good rest is an integral part of my ability to perform well and above par. I take this seriously since I honor my work very much.

I should attend seminars to ensure that I remain adept and competent in my field while also learning important skills that will help me advance in my career.

I'd like to work with a company that encourages entity-community relationships. Community involvement and volunteering bring people together around a similar cause, and integration into the community enhances employee morale and contributes to a healthy work environment.
